

Privacy Statement

Lawson Kroeker Investment Management respects your privacy and values your trust. We take great care to ensure that your personal information is kept safe from unauthorized access. “Personal information” refers to non-public financial information obtained by Lawson Kroeker in connection with carrying out our services. We do not share your personal information in violation of any regulation or law. The only employees who can access your personal information are those who need to know such information to service your account. Lawson Kroeker diligently maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal standards to guard your private personal information and to assist us in preventing unauthorized access to that information.

Lawson Kroeker does not disclose non-public personal information about our current or former clients to anyone, except as authorized by the client, as necessary to maintain and service the client’s account, or as permitted or required by law, regulatory authorities or law enforcement officials.

Lawson Kroeker will update its policy and procedures when necessary to ensure that your privacy is maintained and that we conduct business in a way that fulfills our commitment to you.
